- r. CO of the Emergency Reserve Training Co. Captain Stanislav Havelka, 40 years old, tall, stout, a Communist. This unit is based in Hotel Camp.
- s. CO of Replacement Company Major Josef Rehak (see 1b). His deputy is Captain Václav Flecny, 36 years old, of medium build, bald. Attached to the company are Lt. Kuliš, 30 years old, tall, stout, with red hair; Lt. Jaroslav Bradac, 28 years old, a graduate of the Military Academy in 1949; Cadet Sergeant Václav Fikr, 24 years old, tall, stout, with blond hair.

2. The 80th Infantry Battalion supplies the following guard details:

- a. Hotel Camp guard of eight men armed with pistols and rifles.
- b. Hotel Castle guard of four men during the day, seven men at night.
- c. Hradecny Prison guard of eight men armed with pistols and submachine guns.
- d. Strossovice General Hospital Reserve Officer Ward guard of eight men armed with pistols and submachine guns.
- e. Hradecny Hospital guard of five men.
- f. Psary Ammunition Depot guard of 30 men.
- g. Vrsovice Motor Pool guard of five men armed with pistols and rifles.
- h. Readiness detail of 42 men armed with pistols, rifles, four light machine guns.
- i. Honor guards.

25X1A Comments: Since it is improbable that an officer of the rank of lieutenant colonel should be in command of an SM company, it is believed possible that Strala is actually in command of the Mari a Podhrad barracks. In this case, Lt. Fikr is probably CO of the SM company.
